

Seizure

It's time for "What's That Mean?" Today....

Neurons talk to each other by sending electrical signals, but the signals have to be working together.

When some of the neurons are out of sync with the others, they may cause a "seizure."

Imagine what would happen if the traffic lights were all out of whack, like they all turned green at once!

Yep! Lots of accidents!

Clapping