

Speak Up: Kid Power!

Hi, first day? Well, I've been here for a few days, I get to go home tomorrow, what are you in for?

Well I'm really scared, I fractured my arm in 3 places, and I don't know what they're going to do

Well, I'm Captain Speak Up and it sounds like you could use this.

What is it?

It's a special Speak Up ring.

What's it do?

It gives you the power to ask questions when you don't understand what everybody's talking about. It's also good for making people hear you. Wanna try it?

Sure.

Whoa

Did you say something sweetie?

Um, is the surgery gonna hurt?.

No, because you'll be asleep, but when you wake up, you may be a little sore, so we'll take good care of you.

You have the power to Speak Up. Just be honest. There are no stupid questions.

If something hurts, tell your mom or dad. If your nurse doesn't check your bracelet or ask your birthday before giving you any medicine, ask why.

Even though you're a kid, you still have the right to know. So just Speak Up.
