

Step-by-Step: Fitting a Walker

Fitting a Walker. Standing up straight, place your walker directly in front of you.

Determine the needed height of your handles by making sure they line up with your wrists.

Adjust each leg of your walker to match the needed height of the handles.

Make sure your arm is slightly bent when you are standing and holding the handles.

The contents of this video/website are for information purposes only. Nothing contained in this video/website is intended to substitute for medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment. If you have any healthcare related concerns or questions, you should seek the advice of your physician or other qualified healthcare providers. You should never disregard or discount the importance of professional medical advice because of something you have read or seen on this video/website. You should never delay seeking treatment or advice for a medical condition because of something you have read or seen on this video/website.