

Step-by-Step: Using Crutches on Stairs (Non-Weight Bearing)

Using Crutches on Stairs (Non-Weight Bearing). Going up the stairs. Use one hand to hold the railing and the other to hold both crutches at your side.

Step your uninjured foot onto the first stair. Step your injured leg and crutches up onto the first stair.

Staying in line with your uninjured leg. Repeat steps one and two until you reach the top of the staircase. Going down the stairs.

Use one hand to hold the railing and the other to hold both crutches at your side. Step your injured foot and crutches down one stair.

Step your uninjured leg down next to your crutches and injured leg. Repeat steps one and two until you reach the bottom of the staircase.

The contents of this video/website are for information purposes only. Nothing contained in this video/website is intended to substitute for medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment. If you have any healthcare related concerns or questions, you should seek the advice of your physician or other qualified healthcare providers. You should never disregard or discount the importance of professional medical advice because of something you have read or seen on this video/website. You should never delay seeking treatment or advice for a medical condition because of something you have read or seen on this video/website.