

Be Comfortable Talking to Your Doctor

Talking with your healthcare provider may not always be easy.

Maybe you're embarrassed or nervous about a topic.

Maybe you need a medical interpreter to help you understand the language.

No matter the case, be open and honest with your provider.

The more your provider knows about your health, the better your care will be.